

Oklahoma Small Business Forum

A Forum For Those Who Serve Small Businesses in Oklahoma

Wednesday, September 27, 2006

1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Metro Tech Economic Development Center
1700 Springlake Drive
Oklahoma City, OK 73111

Why This Forum:

If you're in business, there's a lot to know. And it changes all the time. The economy doesn't stay the same. Markets and technologies change. New products and services enter, and some products fade away. Even the rules affecting a business change depending on changing government rules. It's hard to keep up and know who is out there and who does what. This forum is designed to bring together organizations who have business members, with groups and agencies that provides services to small business. We want you to become informed about what these groups have to offer, and most importantly, give you contact with someone who can be the "go to" person for your members.
